Cal Poly Open House Transportation and Parking Issues

SAN LUIS OBISPO - Cal Poly's University Police Department and the Open House Committee would like to remind all students, faculty, and staff that alternative transportation will be the best choice during Open House festivities on Friday, April 15 and Saturday, April 16.

Nearly 12,000 conditionally admitted students and their parents have been invited to attend Open House.

Parking will be extremely limited throughout the day Friday especially during the early morning hours. The University Police Department will have additional staffing deployed all day in order to help facilitate traffic flow and parking throughout campus. However, the sheer volume of traffic will mean long delays and impacted parking.

University Police are asking that all students, faculty, and staff use alternative transportation on Friday to help make Open House a great event. This can include carpooling, walking, SLO Transit, and biking.

For additional information regarding alternative transportation, contact Susan Rains, Commuter and Access Services Coordinator at 756-6680.

For more information on Open House, visit www.calpoly.edu and click on the Open House icon or call the Open House office at 756-7576.
